Ritviks

Veda Bramha Sri Vamsi Krishna Ghanapati Garu is a Dwivedi (Yajurveda and Rigveda) scholar, who has conducted hundreds of Maharudra and Atirudra Mahayagas in India and abroad according to scriptural injunctions. Following in the footsteps of Sri Ganapati Sachchidananda Swamiji of Mysore Datta Peetham, he is a Vedic luminary who continuously performs yajnas and penance for the welfare of the world.

Veda Bramha Sri Umashankar Dixit Garu is a symbol of unparalleled scholarship in Yajurveda and Shaiva Agama Shastras; a great scholar who is transforming the propagation of Sanatana Dharma into a movement in Fremont, California, and igniting the flame of Dharma in the hearts of the youth.

Veda Bramha Sri Chandra Mouli Sharma Garu is a great guru who is shaping thousands of disciples in Yajurveda and Shaiva Agama Shastras, and re-establishing Vedic culture on the soil of Dallas, Texas (USA) through purity of pronunciation and systematic training.

Veda Bramha Sri Bhanu Prakash Sharma Garu is a scholar of Krishna Yajurveda, a great astrologer and a complete Vastu expert at the Srirangapatna Vedic school, a Dharma Yogi who is training many disciples in the scriptures and passing on this knowledge to future generations.

Veda Bramha Sri Pandu Ranganath Sharma Garu is a living embodiment of the Shaiva Agama tradition; a Karma Yogi who has upheld Dharma through continuous service for three decades at the Ranganatha Swamy Temple in Srirangapuram (AP), and a confluence of devotion and scriptural knowledge.

Sri Garudadri Narasimhamurthy Garu
Chairman - RVVSS Temple, Dallas, Texas (USA)

To restore the declining Dharma in Kaliyuga, and with the noble resolution to bring peace, prosperity, and human values to the entire world, he is the determined person who brought the Atirudra Mahayagam into action.

— Sri Garudadri Narasimhamurthy Garu.

It's not just performing a Yagam — it's a penance, a yagna, a life's goal. Having undertaken the Manasa Sarovar Yatra five times in the last five years and having had the good fortune of Lord Parameshwara's darshan at Mount Kailash, he initiated this Mahayagam with the unwavering resolve to transform those divine experiences for the welfare of the world.

Deep faith in Shaiva philosophy, immense devotion to Vedic traditions, and spiritual consciousness matured through continuous Japa-Dhyana-Sadhana are the foundation of this great resolve.

As part of the great pilgrimage for Kailasa Shiva Darshan, overcoming many challenges, and bringing Shiva devotees from the United States every year to the Manasa Sarovar Yatra, providing an opportunity for everyone to have Shiva Darshan, the many sweet memories and spiritual experiences of the last five years have served as inspiration for this great Atirudra Yagam.

In these times, the entire world is grappling with many problems. Natural disasters are increasing, people are suffering due to wars, financial difficulties are crippling families, human values are diminishing, and devotion, faith, and peace are moving away from our lives. Observing all these circumstances — with the noble resolve that there should be peace in the world, Dharma should be strengthened in society, divine grace should prevail in every person's life, for global peace, and for the establishment of Dharma, we are commencing this great spiritual Yagam.

SIGNIFICANCE OF ATI RUDRA MAHAYAGAM

Ati Rudra Yagam is considered one of the most powerful Vedic rituals, mentioned in the scriptures. It is a grand fire ceremony performed to appease Lord Shiva, the auspicious one, for global welfare, universal peace, and the preservation of righteousness.

1. Gives complete protection from all types of negative influences and obstacles. This ritual offers a shield against negative energies, black magic, and insurmountable challenges.

2. Destroys all past negative karma and purifies the mind. It washes away accumulated sins and purifies the consciousness, leading to mental clarity.

3. Strengthens personal power and self-confidence. It enhances inner strength, courage, and boosts self-assurance for overcoming difficulties.

4. Enhances spiritual growth and divine connection. It deepens devotion and fosters a stronger bond with the divine, aiding spiritual evolution.

5. Brings prosperity, health, and happiness. It bestows abundance, well-being, and lasting joy upon the individual and their family.

6. Pleases Lord Shiva and bestows His blessings. The ultimate goal is to please the Supreme Lord Shiva and receive His divine grace.
